PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES

“¿De qué le sirve a uno, hermanos míos, decir que tiene fe, si no tiene obras? ¿Acaso esa fe puede salvarlo? ¿De qué sirve si uno de ustedes, al ver a un hermano o una hermana desnudos o sin el alimento necesario, les dice: ‘Vayan en paz, caliéntense y coman’, y no les da lo que necesitan para su cuerpo? Lo mismo pasa con la fe: si no va acompañada de las obras, está completamente muerta.”

La carta de Santiago exige que pongamos en acción nuestras creencias. Cuando vemos las víctimas de guerra, desastres naturales, o a un vecino en penas, ese es el momento de actuar.

Puedo comenzar con una oración por ellos, pensando que estoy demasiado viejo o enfermo para hacer algo. Puedo poner la enseñanza de la escena del juicio en acción ... ‘Tenía hambre, sed, estaba desnudo, era extranjero, enfermo o encarcelado’ y tú veniste a mí.

Considere esta enseñanza como si estuviera usted leyendo una carta de un familiar o amigo, desesperado, pidiendo ayuda. ¿No quisiera usted ayudarlo en su necesidad? Ellos son los ‘más pequeños de mis hermanos’ en este momento. Qué gran encuentro cuando revela usted el rostro de Cristo con su acción y al mismo tiempo descubre el rostro de Cristo en ellos.

Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

The Diocesan Pilgrimage to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C., will be on Tuesday, October 7, 2025, the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

The Diocesan Pilgrimage tradition to Mary's House is typically held every four years. More information will be forthcoming for individuals, parishes, and schools.

PERSPECTIVE OF THE SUNDAY READINGS

"What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, keep warm and eat well,' but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead."

The letter of James demands we put into action what we believe. When we see the victims of war, natural disasters, or even a neighbor who is struggling, that is the moment for us to spring to action.

I can begin with prayer for them thinking I'm too old or ill to do something. I can put the teaching of the judgement scene into action... 'I was hungry, thirsty, naked, a stranger, and ill or incarcerated' and you came to me.

Consider this teaching as if you were opening a letter from family or friend, desperate for your help. Don't you want to assist them in their need? They are the 'least of my brethren' at this moment. How great a meeting as you reveal the face of Christ by your action and discover His face in them.

Annual Diocesan Wedding Anniversary Mass

Married couples from across the Diocese are invited to renew their vows and thank God for the gift of the Sacrament of Marriage during the Annual Diocesan Wedding Anniversary Mass. The Mass, celebrated by Bishop Alfred Schlert, will take place in the Cathedral of St. Catharine of Siena on Sunday, September 22, 2024. Doors open at 2 p.m. Please visit the following link to register and for more info:
